OVERVIEW

The largest source of funding for the Fulbright Program is an annual appropriation by the U.S. Congress to the U.S. Department of State. In addition, partner nations as well as host institutions in the United States and abroad contribute through direct funding and indirect support such as salary supplements, tuition waivers and university housing.

This report provides information on grants that were awarded to individuals by the Department of State during academic year 2007-2008. Only grants submitted to the J. William Fulbright Foreign Scholarship Board for review and final selection are included. Grants were awarded to U.S. students, teachers, scholars and professionals to study, teach, lecture and conduct research in more than 150 countries worldwide and to their foreign counterparts to engage in similar activities in the United States.

Also included in this report are grants awarded by the U.S. Department of Education which were submitted to the Fulbright Board for final selection. The U.S. Department of Education receives a separate Congressional appropriation for the Fulbright-Hays Program. Since its inception over 60 years ago, more than 300,000 Fulbrighters have participated in the Program under both Departments.

U.S. DEPARTMENT OF STATE

The Fulbright Student Program

For U.S. and foreign graduate students and graduating seniors.

- In 2007, 1,462 Americans studied abroad with either full or partial support from the Fulbright Program. This figure includes the Fulbright English Teaching Assistantships Program.
- In 2007, 2,998 foreign students were offered new or renewed grant awards for study at U.S. universities. This figure includes the Fulbright Foreign Language Teaching Assistant Program.

The Fulbright Scholar Program

For U.S. and foreign scholars and professionals to lecture and/or conduct research in a wide variety of academic and professional fields, including the humanities, social sciences, physical sciences, and business administration.

- In 2007, 1,038 Americans studied and taught or conducted post doctoral research.
- In 2007, 834 visiting scholars came to the United States to lecture or conduct post doctoral research for an academic year or term. Of these, 46 Scholars-in-Residence spent up to a year teaching on U.S. college and university campuses, with a focus on institutions that serve underserved and minority audiences such as Historically Black Colleges and Universities, Hispanic-Serving Institutions, Tribal Colleges, small liberal arts colleges and community colleges.

The Fulbright Teacher Exchange Program

For U.S. and foreign teachers primarily at the secondary level—often a one-to-one exchange.

- In 2007, 459 teachers and administrators from 30 countries participated in semester and year-long classroom exchanges or shorter-term specialized seminars.

The Hubert H. Humphrey Fellowship Program

The Hubert H. Humphrey Fellowship Program promotes leadership development in professional fields critical to U.S. relations with developing and transitioning countries. The program brings mid-career professionals from around the world to the United States for a year of academic coursework, professional development, and leadership training. Grants are given in various fields, including public health, economic development, finance and banking, environmental management, educational planning, and law and human rights. In 2007, there were 167 Humphrey Fellows from 86 countries and locales.

U.S. DEPARTMENT OF EDUCATION

The overseas International Education and Foreign Language Studies programs, authorized by section 102(b)(6) of the Fulbright-Hays Act, are administered and funded by the U.S. Department of Education (USED) under a Congressional appropriation to USED. They are one way programs designed to promote and improve the nation's resources in the less commonly taught languages (LCTLs) and the areas of the world in which those languages are spoken.

In 2007, these four Fulbright-Hays programs supported a total of 1,055 American teachers and prospective teachers, who received their support through U.S. institutions of higher education, organizations or interagency agreements.

The Fulbright-Hays Doctoral Dissertation Research Abroad (DDRA) Program

The purpose of the DDRA Program is to improve, develop and maintain a national capacity to meet the nation's need for specialists in the LCTLs and those areas of the world in which those languages are spoken by providing awards to doctoral candidates, whose career goal is teaching, to engage in full-time doctoral dissertation research abroad in the field of modern foreign language and area studies. In 2007, 131 doctoral candidates received fellowships.

The Fulbright-Hays Faculty Research Abroad (FRA) Program

The purpose of the FRA Program is to improve, develop, and maintain a national capacity to meet the nation's need for specialists in the LCTLs and those areas of the world in which those languages are spoken. The program provides fellowships to language and area studies specialists teaching at U.S. institutions of higher education to enable them to conduct research abroad on projects designed to enhance the nation's knowledge base. In 2007, 21 scholars received fellowships.

The Fulbright-Hays Group Projects Abroad (GPA) Program

The GPA Program provides grants to institutions of higher education (IHEs), state departments of education, private nonprofit educational organizations or combinations thereof to conduct overseas group projects designed to develop and improve modern foreign language and area studies throughout the educational structure of the United States. Types of activities supported include: teacher seminars designed to provide a non-Western perspective on contemporary issues; curriculum teams to develop and field test instructional materials; group research by faculty, teachers and/or students on specific aspects of societies and cultures underrepresented to a significant degree in the curricula of schools, colleges, and universities; and advanced intensive language programs in the LCTLs. In 2007, grants for 46 group projects involving 760 participants were awarded.

The Fulbright-Hays Seminars Abroad Program

The Seminars Abroad Program provides four to six week summer seminars, designed by USED and Fulbright commissions, for K-12 teachers in foreign languages, social sciences and humanities, administrators and curriculum specialists of state and local educational agencies, and college faculty. Upon their return, participants are expected to share their broadened knowledge and experiences with students, colleagues, members of civic and professional organizations, and the public in their home communities. Individual participants are evaluated by the U.S. Department of Education, with the assistance of academic review panels, and then submitted to the J. William Fulbright Foreign Scholarship Board for final selection. Overseas activities are supported by USED funds under the terms of inter-agency agreements between USED and the State Department. In 2007, nine seminars involving 143 participants were funded.

ORGANIZATIONS

Principal Organizations for the Fulbright Program

The J. William Fulbright Foreign Scholarship Board was created by Congress to supervise the Fulbright Program. Appointed by the President of the United States, the Board is composed of 12 members drawn from academic, cultural and public life. The intent was to establish an impartial and independent body which would ensure the respect and cooperation of the academic world for the educational exchange program, particularly in the selection of grantees and of educational institutions qualified to participate. The Board sets policies and procedures for administration of the program, has final responsibility for approving selection of all grantees, and supervises the conduct of the program both in the United States and abroad.

U.S. Department of State

The U.S. Department of State's Bureau of Educational and Cultural Affairs (ECA) serves as the administrative and executive arm of the Fulbright Program. ECA has fiscal responsibility for the preparation of an annual budget request to Congress and the Bureau makes decisions on how allocations of the funds, finally approved by Congress, will be made to participating countries. Under policies established by the J. William Fulbright Foreign Scholarship Board, ECA has primary responsibility for the administration of the program, together with the assistance of cooperating non-profit organizations. ECA administers the program abroad through binational commissions and U.S. embassies.

In a U.S. embassy abroad, commonly referred to as "the post," exchange program activities are the responsibility of a Public Affairs Officer or a Cultural Affairs Officer. At least one of these officers is a member of the local binational commission and maintains for the Bureau the liaison with the commission on policy and program matters. In countries without a commission, the Public Affairs Officer or Cultural Affairs Officer administers the educational exchange program.

U.S. Department of Education

The U.S. Department of Education's Office of Postsecondary Education administers the overseas International Education and Foreign Language Studies program authorized by section 102 (b)(6) of the Fulbright-Hays Act. This program differs from other Fulbright-Hays activities in that its objectives are research and training with no provision for lecturing assignments overseas and no direct exchanges. The program is meant to improve U.S. education in modern foreign language and area and international studies, and is part of the U.S. educational effort in those fields.

Binational Fulbright Commissions

Binational commission boards are composed of equal numbers of resident Americans and partner nation nationals. There are currently 50 Fulbright commissions; Belgium and Luxembourg share a single commission in Brussels. Commissions plan and implement educational exchanges that best promote the Program's objective in a bilateral context, including selection of grantees, fundraising, alumni relationships, and in many countries operating an information service on U.S. study. An executive director and staff are responsible for implementing the commission's programs.

ORGANIZATIONS

Cooperating Organizations for the Fulbright Program

The Department of State's Bureau of Educational and Cultural Affairs is assisted by several organizations in the implementation of the Fulbright Program in the United States and abroad.

- IIE (The Institute of International Education) conducts the U.S. student competition and is responsible for the placement and day-to-day supervision of the majority of foreign student grantees in the United States, and for conducting orientation and enrichment seminars for first year foreign student grantees. IIE also administers the Hubert H. Humphrey Fellowship Program.
- CIES (The Council for International Exchange of Scholars), affiliated with the Institute of International Education, assists in the exchange of lecturers and research scholars and is responsible for the screening of U.S. lecturer and research scholar candidates and the day-to-day administration of the exchange program for research scholars and lecturers from abroad.
- LASPAU (Academic and Professional Programs for the Americas) administers the Fulbright Faculty Development Program for Latin America and the Caribbean.
- AMIDEAST (America Mideast Educational and Training Services, Inc.), with field offices in the Middle East and North Africa, arranges study in the United States for graduate students from the region and handles the day-to-day supervision of these students.
- The International Institute of the Graduate School of the U.S. Department of Agriculture assists in administration and recruitment for the one-to-one exchange of Fulbright teachers. This includes processing of U.S. applicants and the matching of U.S. participants with foreign counterparts.

OTHER ORGANIZATIONS SUPPORTING THE FULBRIGHT PROGRAM

Fulbright Association

The Fulbright Association, a private, nonprofit membership organization of Fulbright alumni and friends, celebrated 30 years of service to Fulbrighters and Fulbright exchanges in 2007. The Fulbright Association promotes and supports the community service and citizen diplomacy of Fulbright alumni. It advocates increased worldwide support for Fulbright exchanges, enriches the experience of visiting Fulbright students, scholars and teachers during their stays in the United States, and promotes lifelong interaction among Fulbright Program alumni globally. Its web site at www.fulbright.org features an online community for Fulbright alumni and a searchable directory. More than 9,000 individual members and nearly 200 colleges, universities, and international organizations support the Fulbright Association. Forty-seven affiliated chapters organized and led by Fulbright alumni volunteers advance international education and serve the Fulbright community in 35 states and the District of Columbia. The Fulbright Association also works closely with more than 70 national Fulbright alumni organizations abroad.

Fulbright Alumni Organizations Abroad

More than 70 countries have Fulbright alumni organizations that welcome American Fulbrighters to their communities, facilitating the settling-in process, assisting them in their research, introducing them to cultural and social activities, and often conducting fundraising to increase the number of Fulbright awards. These associations play an important role in raising the profile of the Fulbright Program abroad.
